Bo Lenhardt
Hayden Pack
Anna Dake
Kamren Henry
9/6/2017

Career Fair Assignment

Client:

- Asks if the user is from Company or is a Student
- Company:
  - Prompts for Identification (ID, name, etc.)
  - Company Name
  - Register representatives:
    - Name
    - Position in the company
  - Requested Majors
  - Representatives
  - Blocks - show big table and just highlight
- Student:
  - Student ID (Grabs from database: Student Name, Major, Year, etc.)
  - Display information gathered from ID with confirmation
  - Optionally upload resume and references - companies can see the resumes of potential interviewees
  - How to find an interview:
    - Results show up as an attending business; tap one to see all its blocks
    - When looking at business, tap a block to open registering for an interview at that time
    - Recommended for your major/expertise
    - Search bar (Company, job title)
    - Browse all Companies
    - Time Available for Interviews
  - Registering for an interview:
    - Company - get to available interviews by clicking on a Company?
    - Choose a slot - show full time slot schedule for the Company

Database:

Student registration tasks:

Required data:

- Student ID -> fetches name, year, major, (skills?)
- Creates interviewee ID? What would it even do?

Data for each interview:
- Company
- Time Slot

Company registration tasks:

Required data:
- Name - can optionally use ID to fill in info from previous years
  - Name
  - Representatives
  - Preferred groups
- Blocks available for interview
  - Number of interviews per block
  - Type of interview/job interview is for
  - Representatives interviewing
  - interviewee(s) registered for block -> can see if filled
- Blocks where representatives are available/ company will be at fair
- Optional: preferred groups (e.g. music majors, has web experience, pharmacy majors)
- Creates interviewer ID - can be used later

Data for each representative:
- Name
- Existing role in Company
- (which blocks they are interviewing - found via company blocks)